North Ridgeville: A Bicentennial Celebration

The North Ridgeville Art Council is holding an art contest to celebrate our city's Bicentennial. This contest is open to both middle and high school students. The theme, "North Ridgeville: A Bicentennial Celebration" must be incorporated into each entry.

Contest Information

1. All entries must incorporate the theme stated above. No trademarks, stickers, glitter, or cartoon characters permitted.
2. Each entry must be an original work of art, done by the student, for the purpose of this contest.
3. Entries must be on paper, no larger than 8.5" x 11" (standard printer paper size). Anything larger than standard printer paper will not be accepted.
4. Entries can be made in the following media: Pencil, Ink, Chalk, Crayon, Marker, Paint, Collage, or Mixed Media.
5. Each entry will be judged on it's creativity, originality, and relevance to the theme. Only one entry per person.
6. Please include a completed entry form with your submission. Each entry form must include a parent/guardian signature.
7. All entries should be submitted in a manila envelope, with the entry form. Artwork should NOT be folded. All entries should be mailed or dropped off at the North Ridgeville Library (35700 Bainbridge Rd, North Ridgeville, OH, 44039) no later than Monday, August 2, 2010. Entries submitted after that date will not be considered.
8. All art work will be on display at the North Ridgeville Corn Festival, held August 13- 15, 2010 in the Senior Center. Winners will be notified in advance. Winners will be announced on Sunday, August 15 at 4 p.m. Prizes will be distributed at this time.
9. Judges' decisions are final and will not be changed. No response to prize notification will forfeit prize, and prize will then go to next runner-up.
10. Please call Amanda Shelnett at (440) 327-0457 if you have any questions regarding the contest rules.
